

Full Time Nanny Job | Central London, UK
Salary Negotiable
PHS Job 2176

A friendly family living in Central London are looking for a full time Nanny for their future baby who will be born in November 2022. As the mother speaks Mandarin so we are looking for a nanny who could speak both Mandarin and English fluently.

A successful candidate should be highly experienced with newborns and have willingness to get a long term position. The family already have a maternity nurse for the first weeks so we are looking for a nanny who would be happy to stay with them for a few of years.

This is their first child and the family need someone who is able to completely support young parents, to help them follow the routine and take care of the baby when they are away or working from home. They would prefer a candidate with a driving license and who can travel abroad with them when required.

There is a small Pomeranian dog in the house so please make sure have no allergies. There is a full time housekeeper so the nanny will be solely responsible for the child in future and all tasks/duties relating to the baby.
